

ME THE BOOKIE

EDITORIAL

“A book is a magical thing that lets you travel to far away places without ever leaving your chair”.

Katrina Mayor

Books are our best friends , our best companions. Books are not just meant to impart knowledge but are also fountainheads of a various things .Books increase our vocabulary ,stimulate our brain , improve our analytic thinking and enhance our language skills .This is exactly the purpose of our book club- Me the Bookie ,to ignite imagination, to keep in touch with the world , to reduce stress ,to stimulate the mind and become a part of the global community.

Throughout the year the children read titles and stories of different genres. They did not just read the stories but actually relived them.

Vera Nazarian says , “Whenever you read a good book ,somewhere in the world a door opens to allow in more light.”

BOOKS
aren't just made of WORDS... they're also filled with PLACES to visit and
PEOPLE to meet.

ALMANAC OF ACTIVITIES

Panchtantra Stories

The first activity of this club was held on 28.4.16. The children were shown the stories 'The Jackal and the Drum' and 'The Talkative Tortoise' on Tata Class Edge. The stories were also narrated with help of stick puppets. After the narration, the children made stick puppets and pasted pictures of the characters related to the stories read.

Jataka Tales

The theme for the activity organised on 21.7.16 was Jataka Tales. A printout of the stories was provided to the children. The story was read by the children and later narrated with proper voice modulation and pronunciation by the teacher. Students made Bookmarks and Book Covers using old cards and waste material.

Fairy Tales

Transporting the children into the fairy land, they were shown the stories - 'Thumbelina and the Little Mermaid' on 17.08.16. The children also read the stories from the hand out furnished to them. The activity of making Book Covers was performed by the students in groups.

Exploring Characters

Stories of Tenali Raman and Birbal were read by the students and the positive qualities of these characters were discussed in the activity organised on 29.9.16. Cover design activity was done. Children pasted the pictures of Tenali Raman & Akbar, Birbal and wrote the names of the stories read. They were motivated and encouraged to read more stories of the characters they learnt about in the club activity.

My Story Book

In the activity held on 20.10.16, the students read and explored the fairy tales –Jack and the Beanstalk & Goldilocks and Three Bears .They made their own stories replacing the main characters with their own name . They also made colourful Book Covers.

Moral story

The book reading session held on 24.11.16 aimed at imbibing the values of kindness , honesty , and forgiveness through stories from 'Hitopadesha' . The children made Table Mats by pasting pictures from the stories read and writing the moral of the story on A 4 sheet.

Folk tales of India

To acquaint the students with the various folk tales of India , two stories were narrated to the children on 8.12.16. Positive characteristics of the different characters in each story were highlighted. Attractive Mouse Pads using glitter sheets were made by the children .

Exploring Indian Authors

In the club activity organised on 19.1.17, the students got an opportunity to explore the Indian author ,Rabindranath Tagore . They were briefed about the author and his famous story 'Feast to the Mice' was narrated to them . The children made beautiful Bookmarks using old wedding cards .

WHAT PARENTS SAY...

As they say "Between the pages of a book is a lovely place to be ". Reading story books had been a wonderful experience and my son enjoyed the club activity .It has ignited the spark in him to read more and more books.

I strongly believe that reading books is important because if one can read , one can learn anything about everything and everything about anything .Book Club activities have motivated my daughter Kavya and her friends to explore the world of books and created a deep interest in reading. Kudos to the Club Team !
