Dear Parents,

RIDS Activity: Harvest Tales – E-Poster Making

Dear Parents,

At Bal Bharati Public School, GRH Marg, we take pride in nurturing global awareness among our students through enriching activities with an international perspective. We are delighted to share that our school has been awarded the prestigious RIDS certification (formerly IDS and ISA) for the fifth consecutive cycle (2022-25). This achievement reflects our unwavering dedication to fostering global citizenship and integrating international awareness into our curriculum.

This year, one of the themes for the RIDS Programme is Harvest Festivals, wherein students will explore the traditions, customs, and legends of harvest celebrations in India, Poland, China, and Ghana.

Through an e-poster-making activity, students will explore the harvest festivals of the chosen countries, learning about their cultural significance and the stories behind them.

The students have to design a digital poster that visually represent the key traditions and customs of the festival and country assigned, creatively showcasing their understanding of cultural diversity and the significance of the festival.

Class Themes:

III A, IV A: Harvest Festival of India – Onam

III B, IV B: Harvest Festival of Poland – Dożynki

III C, IV C: Harvest Festival of China – The Moon Festival

III D, IV D: Harvest Festival of Ghana – Homowo

V A, V E: Harvest Festival of India – Onam

V B, V F: Harvest Festival of Poland – Dożynki

V C, V G: Harvest Festival of China – The Moon Festival

V D, V H: Harvest Festival of Ghana – Homowo

You are requested to motivate your child to design a creative e-poster as per the theme assigned and submit it to the respective class teacher by 16.12.24.

We look forward to witnessing the creativity of our young learners as they embark on this global cultural journey!

RIDS Activity: Endangered Icons – Collage Making

Dear Parents,

At Bal Bharati Public School, GRH Marg, we take pride in nurturing global awareness among our students through enriching activities with an international perspective. We are delighted to share that our school has been awarded the prestigious RIDS certification (formerly IDS and ISA) for the fifth consecutive cycle (2022-25). This achievement reflects our unwavering dedication to fostering global citizenship and integrating international awareness into our curriculum.

This year, the students will be engaged in the activity 'Endangered Icons', wherein they will conduct a comparative study of national animals from four countries: Bhutan (Takin), Republic of Congo (Okapi), Tanzania (Masai Giraffe), and India (Bengal Tiger). Through this activity, they will explore the symbolic significance, habitats, food habits, and threats these animals face, to better understand the global importance of wildlife conservation.

Students have to design a creative collage featuring the national animals of Bhutan, the Republic of Congo, Tanzania, and India. These collages will showcase key characteristics, habitats, and food habits of the chosen animals while emphasizing their significance in ecosystems and the importance of conservation efforts.

Class Themes:

III E, IV E: National Animal of India – Bengal Tiger

III F, IV F: National Animal of Bhutan – Takin

III G, IV G: National Animal of Republic of Congo – Okapi

III H, IV H: National Animal of Tanzania – Masai Giraffe

We encourage you to motivate your child to create a thoughtful and creative collage on the theme allotted and submit the same to the respective class teacher by 16.12.24.

We look forward to seeing the amazing work of our young learners as they explore and share the significance of these endangered icons!

Dear Parents,

Christmas is a time to reflect on the blessings we've shared and to celebrate the bonds that make our school a family. Together, we have created a nurturing environment that inspires learning and growth, not just for our students but for ourselves as well.

May this festive season bring you and your loved ones peace, happiness, and countless cherished moments.

Wishing you all a Merry Christmas. Let's continue to shine brightly together in the year ahead!

Regards
